

MY GREAT AND WORTHY FRIEND - PETER ENAHORO - PETER PAN

I Received The News Of Your Passing To The Great Beyond With Immense Sadness, But After Pondering And Having Deep Reflections I Give Overwhelming Thanks To God For Your Spectacular Life On This Planet In Which You Have So Well Exhibited The Great Gifts With Which He Endowed You.

The Media Today Is Replete With Hair Raising Accounts By Various People Across The World Of Your Wonderful Journey On Earth Over 85 Years.

You Have Been The Quintessential Persona, A Media Icon, The Prolific Nigerian Journalist Who Under The Legendary Pen Name - Peter Pan - Brought Immense Joy, Laughter, And Tears Rolling Down Several Cherks With Your Nerve Crackng, Terse But Highly Incisive Articles.

As A Great And Prolific Writer, Your First Book " How To Be A Nigerian" Written In 1966 Is Still The Best Seller Today. It Was Also My Privilege To Chair In 2015 The Abuja Launch Of Your Famous Book "Then Spoke The Thunder" - A 750 Page Treaties containing Startling Reflections Of The Crisis Of Leadership In Nigeria over Some 50 Years.

You Are A Younger Brother To Our Legendary Political Father Chief Anthony Enahoro from Uromi - Esanland - Edo State - Nigeria. Esanland Is Extremely Proud Of Your Family And Indeed Extremely Proud Of You.

On A Personal Note, I recall With Deepest Gratitude All The Advice And Assistance You Gave To Me During My Tenure As Nigeria's Foreign Affairs Minister At One Of The Most Difficult Times Of Our Nation's History. You lived A life Of A Great Sportsman And Participated In Various Sports In Your life But I Most Earnestly Cherish The Time I Spent Playing Golf With You At The IBB Golf Club Abuja and the Benin Club Golf Course.

I Wish You A Very Safe Journey Home To Your Creator.

Rest In Perfect Peace - Amen

High Chief Tom Ikimi CON
